

Michal Aharonov

Vice President Commercial

Michal Aharonov serves as Gilat's Vice President Commercial

Prior to joining Gilat, Michal spent twelve years at Amdocs, rising to the position of VP, Global Strategic Sourcing. In this role, she was responsible for driving large managed services deals with leading telecommunications companies in Asia, Europe and Canada. Subsequently, Michal took a leadership post at Essence Group where she served as VP, Head of Sales and Services.

Michal holds a Master Degree in Public administration focusing on financial information systems from Clark University in Massachusetts, USA. She also holds a BA in Business Management and Finance from the College of Management – Academic Studies in Tel Aviv, Israel.